JOINT RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE
RE: SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION

Plaintiff Cyndi Boulton (“Plaintiff”)¹ and Defendant Community.com, Inc. (“Defendant”) (together, the “Parties”) hereby submit the following responses to the Court’s Order to Show Cause Re: Subject Matter Jurisdiction (“OSC”) (Dkt. No. 48):

Plaintiff

Plaintiff filed the Complaint in this action, asserting federal question jurisdiction based on a cause of action for violations of 18 U.S.C. § 2511(1)(a). That claim, however, was dismissed “without leave to amend, but with permission to seek leave to amend the complaint should discovery on the surviving claims cure the legal deficiencies” by Court-approved stipulation between the Parties. OSC at 1; see also Order Granting Stipulation to Dismiss Claims, Dkt. No. 36. Plaintiff makes no other claims pursuant to federal statute, so “this Court no longer has federal question jurisdiction.” OSC at 1. As such, the Court directed the Parties to show cause “why the Court should not decline supplemental jurisdiction and dismiss this case without prejudice.” Id. at 2.

1 Plaintiff acknowledges that the Court would ordinarily have the discretion to 2 decline supplemental jurisdiction given the current procedural posture of the case.
3 However, the Court also has original jurisdiction pursuant to the Class Action
4 Fairness Act (“CAFA”). See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2).

5 “ . . . CAFA applies to class action lawsuits where the aggregate number of 6 members of all proposed plaintiff classes is 100 or more persons and where the 7 primary defendants are not States, State officials, or other governmental entities 8 against whom the district court may be foreclosed from ordering relief.” Serrano v.
9 180 Connect, Inc., 478 F.3d 1018, 1020 (9th Cir. 2007) (internal quotation marks 10 and citation omitted); see also Diva Limousine, Ltd. v. Uber Techs., Inc., 392 F.
11 Supp. 3d 1074, 1082 (N.D. Cal. 2019). If those conditions are met, CAFA then “vests 12 federal courts with original diversity jurisdiction over class actions if: (1) the 13 aggregate amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000, and (2) any class member is 14 a citizen of a state different from any defendant.” Serrano, 478 F.3d at 1020–21
15 (internal quotation marks and citation omitted); see also 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A).
16 Thus, the minimal diversity requirement under CAFA is met if there are non-17 California citizens within the putative class. See Diva Limousine, 392 F. Supp. 3d at 18 1083.

19 This action satisfies all requirements for invoking original jurisdiction in this 20 Court under CAFA. First, “[t]he Classes are comprised of thousands of individuals 21

1 nationwide and thousands of individuals in California,” so the threshold requirement
2 of involving 100 or more persons is met. Complaint, Dkt. No. 1, ¶ 97. Second, 3 Plaintiff’s claims are not made as to any State or other government entity. See
4 Complaint, Dkt. No. 1. Third, Plaintiff alleges statutory damages for each violation 5 on behalf of those thousands of individuals nationwide (id. ¶¶ 121, 128), easily
6 satisfying the required amount in controversy. Last, Plaintiff makes claims on behalf 7 of a proposed, nationwide class. Id. ¶ 93. Thus, there are many thousands of non-8 California citizens within the putative class, satisfying the minimal diversity 9 requirement.

10 The requisite conditions for this Court’s original jurisdiction under CAFA 11 existed at the time of filing the Complaint, but jurisdiction under CAFA is not 12 explicitly pled. See Complaint, Dkt. No. 1. A simple amendment to the Complaint 13 would remedy this omission, should the Court be inclined to grant leave to amend 14 for this purpose. See Cipolla v. Team Enterprises, LLC, No. C 18-06867 WHA, 2023 15 WL 2648204, at *3 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 26, 2023) (“Even though CAFA was never 16 mentioned in any of the complaints, this order holds that this omission could be 17 cured by amendment . . .”).

18 Further, should the Court decide to grant leave to amend the Complaint to 19 allege original jurisdiction under CAFA, the Parties jointly request that Defendant’s 20 Motion to Dismiss be heard as scheduled given that such amendment would not have

1 any effect on the arguments made in the Motion to Dismiss and would not affect the 2 substance of Plaintiff's allegations.

3 Defendant

4 Community agrees with Plaintiff's view that the Court has discretion to 5 decline supplemental jurisdiction and dismiss the case. Given the Court's familiarity 6 with the claims and the factual allegations in this action based on its ruling in the 7 Adler v. Community.com action, Community believes that judicial economy and 8 convenience weigh in favor of the Court exercising its discretion to retain 9 jurisdiction over the remaining state-law claims. See, e.g., Satey v. JP Morgan 10 Chase & Co., 521 F.3d 1087, 1091 (9th Cir. 2008) (recognizing that in certain cases, 11 judicial economy and convenience to the parties are "better accommodated by 12 retaining the state law claim[s]" in the district court); Green v. Ariz. Bd. of Regents, 13 No. CV-18-04665-PHX-SPL, 2020 WL 2512759, at *3 (D. Ariz. May 15, 2020) 14 (retaining supplemental jurisdiction to rule on portion of motion to dismiss 15 addressing state law claims, explaining "judicial economy, convenience, fairness, 16 and comity are best served by retaining jurisdiction over the state law claims" 17 because "procedural deficiencies in the case are fatal to Plaintiff's state law 18 claims, . . . the state court is in no better position to decide the issue than this Court," 19 and "[r]emanding the case to state court would only cause additional expense to both 20 Plaintiff and Defendants").

1 In any event, Community does not oppose Plaintiff's proposal to file an 2 amended complaint alleging CAFA jurisdiction. Community agrees with Plaintiff 3 and jointly requests that the August 18, 2023 hearing on its pending Motion to 4 Dismiss the Complaint for lack of standing and failure to state a claim remain on 5 calendar in light of the case schedule the Court has set in the action and Plaintiff's 6 statement that the proposed amendment will not change any of the factual allegations 7 supporting the remaining two claims.
